

Andrew Fletcher Parent Governor

My name is Andrew Fletcher and I am a parent governor for St. Mary's. I was appointed in November 2014. My daughter recently started at St. Mary's in the reception year. The parent governor role requires me to represent the collective views of parents and focus on the provision of excellent education for our children. I sit on the Teaching and Learning Committee and have a particular responsibility for Special Education Needs.